Spouse Kathryn Lee Lord

When David was 14, his family moved from western Massachusetts to Florida. As a teenager, he accepted God's call to the ministry, while attending Methodist Youth Camp in Leesburg, FL. He began pastoring at age 21.

Education:

- Auburndale (FL) High School
- Undergrad work at Olivet Nazarene University in Illinois
- At age 50, Master of Divinity degree from Candler School of Theology, Emory University.
- 1997, Doctor of Ministry degree at United Theological Seminary, Dayton, Ohio.
- 2 Units (800 hours) of CPE (Clinical Pastoral Education)

David has served several appointments in Campbell, Blount Anderson, and Knox Counties, including 10 years as Senior Pastor at Bookwalter United Methodist Church in north Knoxville.

On December 6th, David and Kathryn will celebrate their 30th anniversary.
