

Reverend Sam Reese

Reverend Sam Reese grew up in McDonough, GA. He became a Christian at the age of 17 and immediately felt the call to be a minister of God. He attended Toccoa Falls College in Toccoa Falls, GA, where he received his Bachelor of Science degree in Biblical Studies. From there, he attended Regent University in Virginia Beach, VA, receiving a Master of Arts in Old Testament/Hebrew Bible. After working for a time in the fields of addiction and recovery amongst adolescents, he returned to school and received his Master of Divinity at Asbury Theological Seminary in Wilmore, KY.

Reverend Reese has been married for fifteen years to his wife, Lynette, and they have a beautiful three-year-old daughter, Leliana. Reverend Reese enjoys reading, writing, studying and discussing theology and philosophy, and reading many genres, especially Science Fiction and Fantasy. Most importantly, Reverend Reese loves Christ with all his heart, soul, strength, and mind, and hopes that he will be used daily to bring about the kingdom of God on Earth as it is in Heaven.
